OMNOM

Reykjavik, Iceland

Omnom's striking packaging and the robust chocolate inside intertwine to create a singular chocolate experience. Strong, one-of-a-kind ingredients like malt, Icelandic milk, and lakkrís (Icelandic for licorice) make for extraordinary milk and inclusion bars, while the geometric illustrations adorning the packages evoke mythical creatures and dramatic Icelandic terrain. The single origin bars are also not to be missed. The flavors, intrinsic to their terroir, are not subdued, but have bent to the will of Omnom's craft, exhibiting unique expressions of tried and true heirloom.

RAAKA

Brooklyn, New York

Raaka has the uncanny ability to develop delicious flavors without roasting. They achieve this by including creative methods in their production process, like aging beans in bourbon casks, steaming cacao over simmering wine, or steeping unique ingredients in the cocoa butter. Each bean origin is the inspiration for the infusions, so while the approach is fresh, it remains unpretentious and firmly rooted in craft chocolate ethos.
